

COMMUNITY HEALTH LEVEL 6 HE/OS/CH/CR/07/6

Coordinate Community Health Strategies November/December 2025

1. Community health problems are identified for action. Identify FOUR community health problems that Community Health Promoters may address. (4 Marks)
2. Community health promoters are selected during community barazas. State THREE criteria used in their selection. (3 Marks)
3. Household-level services are a core role of Community Health Promoters. Outline THREE services they provide. (3 Marks)
4. Performance appraisal motivates community health workers. Identify FOUR ways in which outstanding performers can be awarded. (4 Marks)
5. Community health data collection is important. Outline THREE uses of the data collected by Community Health Promoters. (3 Marks)
6. Community entry is the first step in establishing health units. State THREE key activities involved in the process. (3 Marks)
7. Supportive supervision enhances Community Health Promoters performance. Identify THREE methods that can be applied during the exercise (3 Marks)
8. Training materials are essential for effective capacity building. Identify THREE materials commonly used when training Community health promoters. (3 Marks)
9. Community needs assessment help in planning health interventions. State THREE health needs that can be identified during such an assessment. (3 Marks)
10. A community health annual work plan describes key activities to be conducted in a community health unit. Highlight FOUR components that should be included in the work plan. (4 Marks)
11. Training ensures Community Health Promoters and Community Health Committees deliver quality services. Outline THREE training modules that may be included in their training. (3 Marks)
12. Identify FOUR benefits of using community dialogue in addressing health issues. (4 Marks)

SECTION B (60 MARKS)

Answer Any THREE Questions in This Section

13. Performance appraisal of community health promoters has led to improved service delivery and accessibility to health care in Ziba community.

- a) Explain FOUR criteria that community health promoters should meet to be highly recognized and awarded. (8 Marks)
- b) Explain THREE benefits of performance appraisal to community health promoters. (6 Marks)
- c) Elaborate THREE challenges you are likely to face while evaluating community health promoters. (6 Marks)

14. Supportive supervision is not only about monitoring performance but also about mentorship and problem solving.

- a) Discuss FIVE reasons of supportive supervision in strengthening the performance of community health workers in Kenya (10 Marks)
- b) Elaborate FIVE challenges faced in implementing effective supportive supervision of community health worker in Kenya (10 Marks)

15. Community health units form the foundation of Kenya's primary health care system.

- a) Discuss FOUR health services provided at community health unit. (8 Marks)
- b) Discuss SIX roles and functions of community health committee in promoting health and preventing disease at the community level. (12 Marks)

16. A recent study conducted highlighted that many people avoid HIV testing due to stigma and fear of being seen at testing sites.

- a) Explain SIX social mobilization steps you would use to prepare for an advocacy to reduce HIV stigma and encourage testing (12 Marks)
- b) Explain FOUR social mobilization approaches to a successful HIV advocacy program. (8 Marks)