

LEVEL 5

Coordinate Information Communications Technology (ICT)

November/December 2025

SECTION A (40 MARKS)

Attempt ALL questions in this section

1. When purchasing ICT goods and services, the selected supplier has to provide evidence of being a trusted source. State FOUR types of evidence he can provide to prove this.
(4 Marks)
2. ERP (Enterprise Resourcing Plan) is usually referred to as a category of a business management software that is used to enable the flow of information between all departments. List FOUR characteristics of the ERP system.
(4 Marks)
3. The introduction of new technologies such as Artificial Intelligence (AI) has significantly transformed modern workplaces. list FOUR benefits of these new technologies.
(4 Marks)
4. Reliable internet access is essential for efficient communication and operations in an organization. Identify FOUR factors you would consider when selecting an Internet Service Provider (ISP).
(4 Marks)
5. ICT is an important function in an organization and almost all departments require integration of ICT. List FOUR benefits of the ICT department.
(4 Marks)
6. An ICT policy is a set of rules or guidelines that an organization follows to manage its technology and information systems. State FOUR characteristics of a good ICT policy.
(4 Marks)
2. A Virtual platform is a software system that one can use remotely without physical presence. List FOUR virtual platforms that that one can use.
(4 Marks)
3. Installing an operating system like Windows is a step-by-step process. State FOUR steps followed to ensure a successful installation.
(4 Marks)
4. A data breach in your ICT department has been reported to you. State FOUR measures that you will implement to secure the system as per ICT policy.
(4 Marks)
5. A computer is an electronic device that consist of several components. Name FOUR parts of a computer.
(4 Marks)

SECTION B (60 MARKS)

Attempt question ELEVEN (11) any other TWO (2) questions in this section

11. A Technical College is planning to improve on its usage of computers and internet in all its departments. The Principal has asked the ICT officer to lead in the development of an ICT policy. First, the ICT officer meets with heads of departments to assess and find out what they need. Afterwards, a small team is formed to help develop the ICT policy. Later a meeting and a review process is done and a final version of the ICT policy is shared among all departments in the school.
- a) Explain FIVE benefits of conducting a needs assessment with the different departments before writing the ICT policy? (10 Marks)
 - b) Describe FIVE steps the team will follow in the development of the ICT policy. (10 Marks)
12. a) A start-up firm is in need of a new system to manage its daily activities and the manager came to you for help in installing a new ICT system. Describe SIX steps followed in installing the system. (12 Marks)
- b) Information and Communication Technology (ICT) systems play a critical role in the daily operations of modern organizations. To ensure these systems remain reliable and efficient. Explain FOUR reasons why an organization has to do regular maintenance of ICT systems. (8 Marks)
13. a) A hospital intends to install a new ICT equipment for keeping patient records. Describe FIVE factors to consider in procurement of these equipment. (10 Marks)
- b) Monitoring the performance of ICT systems helps organizations identify issues early and improve overall efficiency. Explain FIVE steps required in the preparation of regular reports on system performance. (10 Marks)
14. a) Virtual platforms offer convenient access to information, services, and communication from anywhere at any time. Discuss FIVE advantages of using virtual platforms. (10 Marks)
- b) In today's competitive business environment, organizations are constantly seeking ways to improve efficiency and streamline operations. Explain FIVE advantages an organization can get from adopting an Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system. (10 Marks)