

UNDERTAKE CONFLICT RESOLUTION MANAGEMENT

November/December 2025

SECTION A (40 MARKS)

Answer ALL questions in this section.

1. Communities often experience disagreements that lead to disputes. Identify FOUR common causes of community conflict. (4 Marks)
2. A social worker is expected to engage parties in conflict professionally. Mention FOUR characteristics of conflict resolution. (4 Marks)
3. Different approaches are used to address disputes depending on the situation. State FOUR methods of conflict resolution. (4 Marks)
4. In most organizations, keeping accurate records is emphasized. State FOUR reasons why documentation is important in conflict resolution. (4 Marks)
5. Before resolving a conflict, it is important to know its root causes. Mention FOUR tools used to assess conflict causes. (4 Marks)
6. Successful conflict management depends on how well one relates to others. List FOUR benefits of stakeholders that help in managing conflict. (4 Marks)
7. Effective conflict resolution requires collaboration. Identify FOUR stakeholders usually involved in community conflict resolution. (4 Marks)
8. Even after resolving a conflict, it is important to follow up. State FOUR reasons for monitoring conflict resolution measures. (4 Marks)
9. Every conflict resolution process must be guided by certain values. Mention FOUR key principles that should guide a conflict resolution process. (4 Marks)
10. Not all conflict resolution processes go smoothly. List FOUR challenges that may arise during conflict resolution. (4 Marks)

SECTION: B (60 Marks)

Answer question ELEVEN (11 Compulsory) and any other TWO (2) questions in section.

Case Study

11. A community is experiencing conflict between farmers and pastoralists over water access. Meetings were held, and both groups expressed grievances. The organization facilitated mediation, and an agreement was signed to share resources. However, 6 months later, disputes re-emerged as some parties failed to respect the agreement.
- a) Identify the MAIN type of conflict in the case. (2 Marks)
 - b) State FOUR immediate steps that should have been taken during the initial resolution. (8 Marks)
 - c) Discuss FIVE ways of sustaining peace after a resolution agreement. (10 Marks)
12. In social work, records are often kept after conflict resolution sessions for organizational and legal purposes.
- a) Explain FIVE reasons why documentation is necessary in conflict resolution. (10 Marks)
 - b) Discuss FIVE roles of documentation in supporting effective management of conflict resolution programs. (10 Marks)
13. As a trainee in conflict management, you are expected to develop specific abilities to manage tense situations.
- a) Explain FIVE interpersonal qualities needed for conflict resolution. (10 Marks)
 - b) Describe FIVE conflict resolution skills that enhance a social worker's effectiveness. (10 Marks)
14. Organizations often design structured approaches to deal with recurring conflicts in communities.
- a) Explain FIVE preliminary steps in developing a community conflict resolution program. (10 Marks)
 - b) Outline FIVE ways to ensure the conflict resolution program is effective and sustainable. (10 Marks)