

Apply Basic Hospital Procedures

SECTION A (40 MARKS)

Attempt ALL the questions in this section.

1. The out-patient department (OPD) is one of the main departments in each hospital offering diverse services. Outline FOUR services that are offered in OPD. (4 Marks)
2. Procedures performed on patients vary according to the availability of the equipment. Identify FOUR hospital equipment and their specific purpose. (4 Marks)
3. Medical records in hospitals are shifting from paper based to electronic medical records (EMR). State FOUR advantages of EMR. (4 Marks)
4. There are different types of instruments found in surgical sets. Outline FOUR classifications of instruments by function. (4 Marks)
5. In hospitals, there are isolation rooms for patients. State FOUR indications for isolating patients in a hospital. (4 Marks)
6. There are several types of life support machines that can be found in a hospital. Name FOUR of such machines. (4 Marks)
7. The construction of a theater unit in a hospital is influenced by certain factors. State FOUR factors that can determine the size of a surgical suit in a hospital. (4 Marks)
8. It is a standard practice that out of order equipment and instruments be reported. Give FOUR dangers that could arise as a result of not reporting malfunctioning equipment and instruments. (4 Marks)
9. A perioperative theatre technician is caring for a patient with an indwelling catheter in the recovery area. State FOUR precautions that will be observed in caring for the patient. (4 Marks)
10. Operating theatres are always designed with different zones. Outline FOUR advantages of zoning in theatre. (4 Marks)

SECTION B (60 MARKS)

Attempt Any THREE Questions in This Section

11. The hospital services charter helps in provision of quality care to patients.

- a. State FIVE components contained in a service charter. (5 Marks)
- b. Outline FIVE patients' rights as per the hospital service charter. (5 marks)
- c. Explain TEN roles of patients as per the service charter. (10 marks)

12. Following a major road accident, multiple patients have arrived in the emergency department and several require emergency surgery. As part of the surgical team, you are involved in triaging patients for the operating theatre and ensuring total patient care before, during, and after surgery.

- a. State FOUR reasons why patient triaging is important. (4 Marks)
- b. Describe the FOUR color codes used in triage. (8 Marks)
- c. Explain FOUR elements of total patient care. (8 Marks)

13. Since the advent of devolution, the health care system in Kenya became devolved and some functions were retained at the national government.

- a. State FIVE roles played by the ministry of health at the national level. (5Marks)
- b. Outline the first FIVE levels of health care that are managed at the county Level.
(5 Marks)
- c. Discuss TEN services offered in the county and national referral facilities.
(10 Marks)

14. When working in the central sterile supply department (CSSD), hospital machines and equipment are processed with care.

- a. State FIVE functions of the CSSD. (5 Marks)
- b. Outline FIVE types of waste likely to be generated from this department.
(5 Marks)
- c. Describe FIVE general principles of care for medical machines and equipment.
(10 Marks)