

Maintain Perioperative Theatre Instruments and Apparatus

SECTION A (40 MARKS)

Attempt ALL the questions in this section.

1. Majority of surgical instruments are made of stainless steel and can be sterilized by steam under pressure. Mention FOUR disadvantages of steam sterilization.
(4 Marks)
2. Lensed Instruments are categorized as special Instruments that must be protected from breakage and distortion. State FOUR general precautions in care of lensed instruments in theatre. (4 Marks)
3. Surgical retractors are custom made for different surgical procedures in an operating room. Name FOUR retractors found in theatre. (4 Marks)
4. While working in theatre one of your responsibilities is accounting for supplies in the post- operative phase. Outline THREE steps you will follow when counting instruments in theatre department (CSSD). (3 Marks)
5. Presoaking of surgical instruments serves to prevent blood and debris from drying on instruments. List FOUR solutions can be used for this purpose. (4 Marks)
6. The use of linen in the Operating room has significantly reduced since the introduction of disposable patient paper drapes in most of the hospitals. Mention FOUR considerations in the usage of linen in theatre. (4 Marks)
7. Inspection of theatre instruments is an important aspect during the cleaning process. State FOUR characteristics to be inspected for on instruments after the cleaning process. (4 Marks)
8. Disassembling of surgical instruments with removable parts aids in the effective management of surgical instruments. Name FOUR tools used in disassembling of theatre equipment. (4 Marks)
9. Sterilization is the only validated process capable of destroying all forms of microbial life. State THREE principles applied when arranging instruments in sterilizing chambers to achieve sterility. (3 Marks)

10. Surgical instruments need to be carefully checked before use. Outline FOUR incidences when you should avoid the use surgical packs despite them being sterile. (4 Marks)

11. Particular combination of personal protective equipment is determined by the category of precautions one is on. State TWO reasons for use of PPEs (Protective personal Equipment) when handling theatre instruments. (2 Marks)

SECTION B (60 MARKS)

Attempt Any THREE Questions in This Section

12. Surgical scissors are available in a wide variety of sizes and types.

- a. Mention SIX types of such scissors in theatre. (6 Marks)
- b. Draw and label parts of a mosquito artery forceps. (6 Marks)
- c. Outline EIGHT steps involved in the manual cleaning of soiled sharp and tipped instruments. (8 Marks)

13. The preparation of equipment and instruments for patient use begins at the point of use in surgery.

- a. State FOUR categories in which surgical equipment are separated at the close of a surgical procedure. (4 Marks)
- b. Describe the EIGHT stages in the instrument reprocessing cycle. (16 Marks)

14. Instruments are assembled in a way that protects them and facilitates sterilization.

- a. Explain SIX guidelines to follow when assembling instrument sets. (6 Marks)
- b. Discuss SEVEN characteristics of a quality instrument wrapping system. (14 Marks)

15. An accurate written record detailing all aspects of surgical equipment is important.

- a. State FIVE key details written on the sterilizing tape when labeling a surgical pack for sterilization. (5 Marks)
- b. Mention FIVE reasons for maintaining the instrument storage records in theatre department. (5 Marks)
- c. Discuss FIVE common gaps found in record keeping. (10 Marks)