

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

SECTION A (40 MARKS)

Attempt ALL the questions in this section.

1. Alarms are a system designed to signal the presence of a hazard requiring urgent attention and to summon emergency medical personnel. Outline THREE common alarms in the operating room. (3 Marks)
2. Prior to any surgical procedure, an informed consent should be obtained from the patient. State FOUR requirements that should be met for consent to be considered valid. (4 Marks)
3. Waste management is crucial in maintaining theatre safety. List FOUR importance of proper waste management. (4 Marks)
4. Scissors is one of the most common instruments in any surgical set. Classify FOUR types of surgical scissors. (4 Marks)
5. Records in the perioperative theatre should always be accurate and complete. Outline FOUR principles of good record keeping. (4 Marks)
6. In executing theatre safety, it is necessary that hazards are identified. Outline FOUR classifications of hazards in operating theatre. (4 Marks)
7. Needle prick injuries are common in operating theatre. Identify FOUR safety precautions to observe when handling needles. (4 Marks)
8. When writing incident reports in theatre it is important that the incident be clearly defined. Distinguish between a near miss incident and an adverse event. (2 Marks)
9. The WHO safety checklist provides a clear guide to ensure patient safety during surgical procedures. Name FOUR components of the safety checklist during sign out. (4 Marks)
10. Good body mechanics are essential in ensuring both patient and health care provider safety when moving and transferring patients. State THREE practices of good body mechanics. (3 Marks)
11. The acronym RACE represent key steps in evacuation plan should there be a fire in the operating theatre. Identify the components represented in this acronym. (4 Marks)

SECTION B (60 MARKS)

Attempt Any THREE Questions in This Section

12. Protecting patients from injury is one of the major roles of the perioperative theatre technician.

a. State TEN recommended practices for patient safety goals by the Joint Commission Standards. (10 Marks)

b. Describe FIVE preparations that should be done on the patient to ensure safety when using diathermy machine. (10 Marks)

13. Patient positioning in the operating table is critical in facilitating access to the surgical site while ensuring patient safety.

a. Describe FIVE positions used in an operation theatre. (10 Marks)

b. State FIVE complications that can result from incorrect patient positioning. (5 Marks)

c. Outline FIVE Safety measures to be observed while transferring, moving, and positioning patients. (5 Marks)

14. As a theatre technician understanding theatre organization and zoning is required to maintain sterility, control traffic and prevent infections in theatre.

a. State EIGHT responsibilities of the hospital management in executing theatre safety (8 Marks)

b. Describe the theatre zones and in each cite a relevant example. (12 Marks)

15. After a cesarean section you are required to perform waste segregation in theatre.

a. Outline the meaning of the term waste segregation? (2 Marks)

b. Explain TWO categories of waste generated in an operating room. (4 Marks)

c. Describe SEVEN potential health care risks that may arise as a result of poor hospital waste management. (14 Marks)